Project: Saiger study involving inclusion of many more variables in statistical analyses.

Purpose: To seek to reduce the correlation of smoking and disease by introduction of additional variables.

Term: Long, with possible short-term results.

2025037812

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/zpcb0003